ORDER NUNC PRO TUNC

In conference at its office in Austin, Texas the Railroad Commission of Texas took up for consideration the matter of correcting its Master Default Order entered on October 6, 2015 for Oil & Gas Docket No. 05-0277075. The Commission finds that in this Master Default Order signed by the Commission it is reflected that, due to clerical error, a portion of the Final Order referred to Respondent incorrectly as Integrated Oil & Gas Solutions Corp.

Accordingly, the Final Order is hereby amended nunc pro tunc, to read as follows:
Intergrated Oil & Gas Solutions Corp. (424839)

It is further ORDERED by the Commission that this order shall, not be final and effective until 28 days after you are notified of the entry of this order. You will be presumed to have been notified of this order three days after the date of this letter. This deadline cannot be extended because it is set by law. If a motion for rehearing is filed by any party at interest within such 28-day period, this order shall not become final and effective until such motion is overruled, or if rehearing is granted, this order shall be subject to further action by the Commission.

Done this 3rd day of November 2015.
